FOHBC RENO 2022 INVITATION

Here is the antique bottle event you all have been anxiously waiting for. The Western Region of the Federation of Historical Bottle Collectors (FOHBC) would like to invite you to the RENO 2022 National Antique Bottle Convention. The first FOHBC antique bottle convention after the cancellation of the FOHBC 2020 Reno, Nevada and 2021 Syracuse New York conventions due to the Covid-19 pandemic. Reno 2022 will occur over four days and be a three-day event commencing mid-day on Thursday, July 28th, and ending midday, Sunday July 31st.

On October 15, 1959, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Tibbits (wife Edith) called the first meeting of what became The Antique Bottle Collectors Club of California at their home in Sacramento, California. Tibbits was elected the first president. It was believed to be the first such club. This attracted the attention of antique bottle clubs across the country and many joined what eventually evolved into the Federation of Historical Bottle Collectors.

Reno is a city in the northwest section of the state of Nevada, along the Nevada-California border, about 22 miles from Lake Tahoe. Reno has been called “the biggest little city in the world” and is often described as a smaller version of Las Vegas, its much bigger brother to the southeast. Known for its casino and tourism industry, Reno is the county seat and largest city of Washoe County and sits in the High Sierra foothills, in the Truckee River valley, at the eastern side of the Sierra Nevada. The Reno metro area (along with the neighboring city Sparks) occupies a valley colloquially known as the Truckee Meadows, which because of large-scale investments from Greater Seattle and San Francisco Bay Area companies such as Amazon, Tesla, Panasonic, Microsoft, Apple, and Google has become a new major technology center in the United States. The city is named after Civil War Union Major General Jesse L. Reno, who was killed in action during the American Civil War at the Battle of South Mountain, on Fox’s Gap. Boasting more than five million visitors a year, Reno offers a wide range of entertainment and educational attractions, many of which are ideal for families. Some of the fun and unique things to do here include hot-air balloon races, bowling tournaments, car shows, and concert performances at the many large resorts here. Reno also makes a great base if you are planning to visit the Lake Tahoe recreational area 45 minutes away, as well as Pyramid Lake to the northeast of the city.

Our convention will be held at the Grand Sierra Resort (GSR) (formerly MGM Grand Reno, Bally’s Reno and Reno Hilton) which is a hotel and casino located approximately three miles east of Downtown Reno, Nevada. The hotel has 1,990 guest rooms and suites, 12 restaurants, including Charlie Palmer Steak by celebrity chef Charlie Palmer, and a casino with 80,000 sq ft of space. GSR has a movie theater, a Race & Sports Book, nightclubs including LEX Nightclub, a 25,000 sq ft venue with a swimming pool, lake golf driving range, a two-screen cinema, a bowling center, an RV park, and a recently opened ice rink. To make reservations: Phone number: 1-800-648-5080 Group Code: FHB22

Bottle collecting is the finest hobby going. We want you to have the most enjoyable experience at the FOHBC Reno 2022 National Antique Bottle Convention. In short, have fun! Your Chair and Chairs for this event are Richard & Bev Siri, including a consortium of passionate FOHBC Team Reno members such as Bella Alucema, John Burton, DeAnna Jordt, Eric McGuire, Elizabeth Meyer, Ferdinand Meyer V, John O’Neill, Gina Pellegrini, and Jeff Wichmann. They will attempt to make your time in Reno enjoyable, comfortable, and an antique bottle experience you will never forget!

BOTTLE CONVENTION

SHOOTOUT

SIERRA RESORT AND CASINOInfo: FOHBC.org

This friendly competition will compare and judge three particular types of bottles from anyone who would like to enter examples that they own. The three judging events will be for the 'best' J. F. Cutter star shield type whiskey fifth, Bay City Soda Water Co. bottle and for the Old Sacher's Bitters and Wigwam Tonic. The merits of each bottle will be judged by a panel of veteran collectors experienced with each type. Each bottle entered into the competition will be given a unique code that represents the owner, so the judges will not know the identity of the owner until after final judging. Limit three bottles per category per person.

Thursday evening, July 28, 2022, 8:00 to 10:30 pm, Bottle Registration: 6:30 pm - Grand Sierra Resort and Casino, Crystal Ballroom

GROUP 1: BAY CITY SODA WATER BOTTLES

The Bay City Soda Water Company was formed under the laws of the State of California in December 1870, with stock amounting to $100,000. It was the first incorporated soda water company in California.

On April 27, 1872, the company trademarked its unique styled bottles to deter imitators. The bottle described in the submitted registration papers is shown here and is a copy of the actual filing. Several mold and color variants are known so it will be very interesting to see what has been found in this family of Bay City soda bottles. With that in mind, this competition will truly be based solely on the aesthetic qualities embodied in each example. Color, condition and other characteristics of the glass will be the merits that will guide the judges to their decision of a first, second and third place winner.

As is nearly always the case with antique bottles, some real surprises may emerge from the submitted entries, and this is what we are hoping to see. We urge anyone who has an example that they think is special, to share it in a grouping that may never be witnessed again.

GROUP 2: J. F. CUTTER FIFTH WHISKEY BOTTLES

Just as with the Bay City Soda, the second 'shootout' will be with a decidedly western bottle with a similar historical beginning. The J. F. Cutter bourbon bottles were initially documented with a protective trade mark issued by the State of California on April 15, 1870, although the registrant, John F. Cutter, was actually a resident of Louisville, Kentucky when the trade mark was registered. Cutter worked closely with his San Francisco agent, Edward Martin, in attempting to corner the Cutter brand whiskey market.

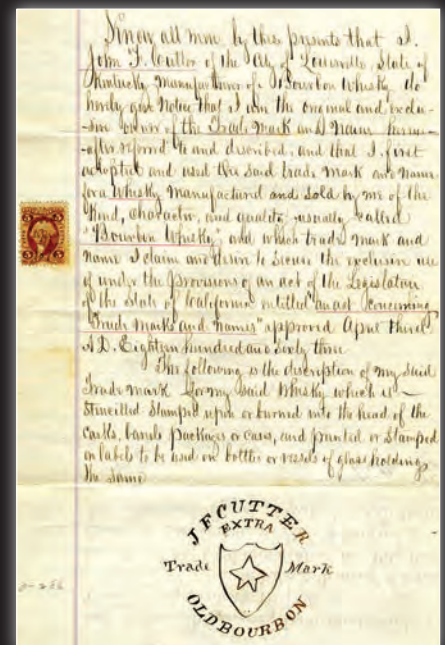

Much has been written about the brand and legal troubles that entangled it with the J. H. Cutter trade marks. It is safe to state that this whiskey was far more popular than soda water and many more examples and mold variants of the bottle were produced over the next three decades, but they all kept with the general theme of the registered trade mark. Some beautiful examples of this bottle have been found over the years and it will be exciting to see a representative grouping entered into this competition.

GROUP 3: OLD SACHEM'S BITTERS AND WIGWAM TONIC

This figural bitters barrel is a favorite among collectors. With a great name, the bottles come in a stunning array of colors. The label stated that it was "From an old Indian recipe in possession of the family of the proprietor for upwards of a century is now offered to the public as one of the most healthy and wholesale beverages extant and as a tonic is unsurpassed. Sold by principal grocers, druggists and hotels throughout the union. Endorsed by a professor at Yale College."

George Goodwin began manufacturing patent medicines in the 1840s at 76 Union in Boston. Around 1850, he and Dr. John O. Langley of Langley's Bitters became partners and in 1854, moved to 99 Union.

By 1857, the firm was named Geo. C. Goodwin & Co., and had taken in William B. Hibbard as a junior partner. Goodwin retired in 1859 and his son Charles C. Langley, and Hibbard ran the business. In 1863, they moved to 38 Hanover. Eventually the company became one of Boston's largest wholesale drug firms. We will see some great examples in this category.

Beginning in the mid-1960s his name can be found on many articles relating to bottles and glass. Eric's primary interest has been focused on the geographical area of the Western United States. Top 25 Western Whiskey Display • Friday, July 29th, Sat., July 30th & Sun. July 31st [Showroom hours] Summit Pavilion

You are invited to participate in the centerpiece Top 25 Western Whiskey Bottle Display at the FOHBC Reno 2022 National Antique Bottle Convention from July 28th - July 31st, 2022 at the Grand Sierra Resort & Casino. This display is designed to show the best of the best of the Top 25 western whiskey bottles known.

The quintessential bottle that represents our old west is the iconic fifth size whiskey bottle. As the new western frontier developed, the hard driving, hard drinking pioneers often turned to whiskey to lessen the burden of life. As a result, many whiskey dealers marketed their product in what was termed "glass labeled" bottles – that is, appealing bottles blown in molds heavily embossed with lettering and symbols usually reserved only for paper labels. They are generally highly desired by collectors and some were even produced in different colors and crudeness that make them aesthetically pleasing. Others are quite rare as well, which makes them even more precious. The FOHBC is inviting possessors of these rarities to participate in a joint display at the Reno convention in a secure display area on the showroom floor. This display is expected to attract a special grouping of bottles that will easily approach one million dollars in total value. Such a display may never happen again, and with the help of the collecting community, will provide an attraction that, alone, is worth attending the RENO 2022 Convention to witness. Because of the monetary values involved, the display will be guarded with security and other methods not publicized. Nearly everyone who possesses these rarities understands what constitutes bottles considered to be in the 'Top 25'. However, for more information you are invited to contact the show chairman, Richard Siri, at rtsiri@sbcglobal.net or 707.542.6438. Bottles must be in cabinet from Friday 11:30 am to show close on Sunday at 2:00 pm. See Flyer on page 15.

Dealer Unloading & Display Set-Up

All dealer tables will be delivered and set up on Wednesday, July 27, 2022. Dealers will be allowed to bring in sales structures and set-up (no merchandise) on Thursday, July 28th from 7:00 am to 5:00 pm, Friday 7:00 am to 5:00 pm (merchandise allowed), and on Saturday, July 30th from 7:00 am to 5:00 pm at the GSR Summit Pavilion. See page 22 for site plan. The showroom will be closed to all participants from Noon to 1:00 pm on Friday before the Ribbon Cutting Ceremony at 12:50 pm. A separate sheet of instructions will be included in your Dealer packet outlining the unloading procedure. Diagrams and maps will be included. There will be strict security at this time. We ask your cooperation during this important time so that the process can move swiftly and safely. Please check the Events Schedule for unloading times. You can place bottles and such on tables at 1:00 pm on Friday.

Ribbon Cutting Ceremony

Come watch the Ribbon Cutting Ceremony and start of the Reno 2022 National Antique Bottle Convention on Friday, July 29th at 12:50 pm at the GSR Summit Pavilion. This event will start promptly 10 minutes before the doors open for dealers and early admission attendees. Most if not all Team Reno Members will be present.

Dealer & Early Admission

Dealers will be permitted to enter the GSR Summit Pavilion showroom floor promptly at 1:00 pm on Friday, July 29th to allow them to arrive at their table spaces before the Early Admission group. Early Admission participants will be allowed in immediately behind the Dealers (approx 1:15 pm). You must wear your Dealer or Early Admission name tag badge visibly to gain access to the showroom floor. At 5:00 pm, all Dealers and Early Admission participants must leave the showroom floor and the showroom will be secured and locked. On Saturday, August 2nd, Dealers and Early Admission participants will be allowed on the showroom floor from 7:00 am to 8:00 am. The early admission and general public will follow at 8:00 and 9:00 am.

Security

Please note that we expect your cooperation with visibly wearing your name tag badge. We take security seriously and have arranged to have the showroom floor continuously monitored by surveillance equipment and taped. All areas of the display and showroom floor will be monitored continuously by surveillance cameras and we hope this will improve the security at our event. Furthermore, when the Summit Pavilion showroom is closed for the day on Friday and Saturday, no one under any circumstance, will be allowed back into the room. A full-time security guard will be stationed inside the showroom area during the hours that the show is closed. Again, no one will be admitted to this area during the times when the show floor is closed. Similar security measures will be in place for all the events scheduled by the Reno 2022 security team.

Security measures require that before you unload your sales materials, you must pick up your packets as they include your name tag identification badges. Your badges must be worn in the unloading area for obvious security reasons. Please remember that the time of highest vulnerability is during the set-up and break-down times. Even though we have made improvement to our security procedures, your common sense and diligence is your best defense against theft.

FOHBC NATIONAL ANTIQUE BOTTLE CONVENTION

TOP 25 WESTERN WHISKEY DISPLAY

INVITATION TO PARTICIPATE

You are invited to participate in the centerpiece bottle display at the upcoming FOHBC Reno 2022 National Antique Bottle Convention from July 28th - July 31st, 2022 at the Grand Sierra Resort & Casino. This display is designed to show the best of the best of the Top 25 Western Whiskey bottles known.

The quintessential bottle that represents our old west is the iconic fifth size whiskey bottle. As the new western frontier developed, the hard driving, hard drinking pioneers often turned to whiskey to lessen the burden of life. As a result, many whiskey dealers marketed their product in what was termed "glass labeled" bottles – that is, appealing bottles blown in molds heavily embossed with lettering and symbols usually reserved only for paper labels. They are generally highly desired by collectors and some were even produced in different colors and crudeness that make them aesthetically pleasing. Others are quite rare as well, which makes them even more precious. The FOHBC is inviting possessors of these rarities to participate in a joint display at the Reno convention in a secure display area on the showroom floor.

This display is expected to attract a special grouping of bottles that will easily approach one million dollars in total value. Such a display may never happen again, and with the help of the collecting community, will provide an attraction that, alone, is worth attending the RENO 2022 Expo to witness. Because of the monetary values involved, the display will be guarded with security and other methods not publicized.

Nearly everyone who possesses these rarities understands what constitutes bottles considered to be in the "Top 25." However, for more information you are invited to contact the show chairman, Richard Siri, at rtsiri@sbcglobal.net or 707.542.6438.

Bottles must be in the secure Summit Pavilion display cabinet from Friday 11:30 am to show close on Sunday at 2:00 pm.

Our FOHBC Souvenir Programs are retained by many for years and are referenced over and over to contact collectors specializing in specific items and categories. Free distribution to well over a thousand collectors and convention attendees. A significant number of Souvenir Programs end up in the hands of collectors who do not subscribe to any of the bottle magazines, allowing you to reach a whole new audience. The entire Souvenir Program will be posted on the FOHBC website, and related FaceBook pages prior to and after the convention reaching a much broader audience. The program will also join the FOHBC online historical archives. Assistance will be provided by the FOHBC on all advertising designs if requested.
